

WEDDING BELLS.

MR. P. S. PUGH MARRIED TO MISS SALLIE J. WILSON.

Judge Hancock Awards an Injunction Against the Odd-Fellows—Philadelphia Sportsmen in Brunswick.

Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.

PEPPERSBORO, November 11, 1890.

Washington-Street Methodist Episcopal church was filled with a fashionable assemblage this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock to witness the marriage of Mr. P. S. Pugh and Miss Sallie J. Wilson. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Blodget, the pastor of the church, assisted by Rev. R. R. Acree, of the First Baptist church. The groom's best man was his brother, Mr. J. B. Pugh, of New York. The ushers were Mr. C. P. Mahood, of Lynchburg; Mr. R. T. Stone, Jr., of Roanoke; Mr. A. F. Jahnke, Jr., of Richmond, and Messrs. W. J. Eps and W. H. Cooper, of this city. There were no waters. The bride was attired in a handsome, tailor-made travelling suit, with hat to match. The couple were driven directly from the church to the Appomattox depot, where they took the full train for a bridal trip to the North. The groom is a young man of sterling worth and distinguished holds an important position with the S. W. Venable Tobacco Company. The bride is a most charming young lady and is the daughter of the late Dr. Wilson. They carry with them the heartfelt good wishes of a host of friends. The couple were the recipients of a great many beautiful and appropriate presents—a number of them sent by friends living at a distance.

INJUNCTION AGAINST THE ODD-FELLOWS.

It appears that the published statement that Judge Bernard had refused to grant an injunction against the Odd-Fellows' Association in the construction of their new building on Seymour street was erroneous. The papers in the case were withdrawn from before the Judge and submitted to Judge B. A. Hancock, of the Circuit Court. The plaintiff in the case is Mr. William N. Bolling, executor of George W. Bolling, deceased. Yesterday Judge Hancock awarded the plaintiff an injunction, in accordance with the prayer of his bill enjoining and restraining the Odd-Fellows' Association of the city of Petersburg, its attorneys, agents, employees, and servants, and all other persons, from removing, injuring, or interfering with the footings of the walls of the building belonging to the plaintiff, and from so excavating the ground on the plaintiff's lot owned by the Odd-Fellows as to endanger, injure, or weaken the foundations of said building or any of its walls or footings, until the further order of the Circuit Court of the city of Petersburg.

NEW BENEFICIAL ORDER.

A branch of the Progressive Benefit Order was organized here last night, and the following officers were elected for the first term: Past President, William J. Taylor; President, R. E. Gill; Vice-President, J. H. Parker; Secretary, T. M. Gilliam; Treasurer, R. L. Campbell; Outside Sentinel, John McFeron; Inside Sentinel, William A. Heath; Marshal, W. T. Green; Chaplain, B. M. Perkins. The objects of the order, including its name, are beneficial.

BENEFICIAL HUNTING PARTY.

Dr. Bolling, of Philadelphia, and a number of prominent gentlemen and large manufacturers of that city have been hunting for some days out in Brunswick county, and it is said, have met with fine success. The game bagged at last accounts consisted of several fine deer and many wild-turkeys and partridges. One of the turkeys killed weighed eighteen pounds and of itself furnished a meal for the party.

GENERAL NEWS.

The last quarterly meetings of the conference year were held at all of the Methodist churches in this city last night and the business of the year was completed. This morning the ministers and lay delegates from this district left for Lynchburg. Many clergy from other sections also went up this morning to attend the Conference.

The receipts of tobacco this week have been light, but peanuts have been coming in very freely.

The receipts from the lecture of Dr. J. William James last night for the benefit of the monument to General A. P. Hill were very gratifying and will form a handsome nucleus for the fund which will most assuredly be raised.

The criminal docket of the approaching term of the Hustings Court will be a small one. A grand jury and two venires are all that will be required to dispose of the cases.

ROBIN ADAMS.

ESCAPE OF THREE LADIES.

THEIR BUGGY COLLIDES WITH A HORSE AND THEY ARE THROWN OUT.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

LOUISA C. H., November 11, 1890.

Yesterday being our regular monthly court, there was a very large attendance of the people.

There came very near being a serious mishap to three young ladies of this town late in the evening. They were driving when their buggy struck a horse that was being ridden by a gentleman. The carriage then became loose and broke and the ladies stood and sprang through two of the ladies out. The horse at the same time extricated himself from the buggy and one of the ladies was drawn out by the reins being wrapped around each hand. She was dragged twenty feet, but fortunately the horse was seized and held, so that she was relieved and not injured. The same horse was immediately picked up by a colored man who seemed bent on driving him. He again became somewhat unmanageable and struck an old gentleman named James H. Perkins on the hip, throwing him down. He was painfully hurt, if not severely.

STILL ANOTHER ACCIDENT.

About the same time Mr. B. S. Francisco was thrown from his buggy and his head cut, but the Doctor seems to think nothing serious will attend it.

A LOVED PASTOR.

Rev. B. F. Bain, of Louisa circuit, whose four years' time expires to-day, leaves for the Conference of Lynchburg. He is admired and beloved by all, irrespective of denomination.

There will be a supper given at the Piedmont Hotel, at this place, on Friday night next, and from all that I have been able to gather it will be on the old Virginia style.

M.

GABE BURNS'S GREAT PERIL.

Shot and Clinging to a Bridge While a Train Passes Over Him.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

LOUISA C. H., November 11, 1890.

Yesterday being our regular monthly court, there was a very large attendance of the people.

There came very near being a serious

mishap to three young ladies of this town late in the evening. They were driving when their buggy struck a horse that was being ridden by a gentleman. The carriage then became loose and broke and the ladies stood and sprang through two of the ladies out. The horse at the same time extricated himself from the buggy and one of the ladies was drawn out by the reins being wrapped around each hand. She was dragged twenty feet, but fortunately the horse was seized and held, so that she was relieved and not injured. The same horse was immediately picked up by a colored man who seemed bent on driving him. He again became somewhat unmanageable and struck an old gentleman named James H. Perkins on the hip, throwing him down. He was painfully hurt, if not severely.

STILL ANOTHER ACCIDENT.

About the same time Mr. B. S. Francisco was thrown from his buggy and his head cut, but the Doctor seems to think nothing serious will attend it.

A LOVED PASTOR.

Rev. B. F. Bain, of Louisa circuit, whose four years' time expires to-day, leaves for the Conference of Lynchburg. He is admired and beloved by all, irrespective of denomination.

There will be a supper given at the Piedmont Hotel, at this place, on Friday night next, and from all that I have been able to gather it will be on the old Virginia style.

M.

GABE BURNS'S GREAT PERIL.

Shot and Clinging to a Bridge While a Train Passes Over Him.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

LOUISA C. H., November 11, 1890.

Yesterday being our regular monthly court, there was a very large attendance of the people.

There came very near being a serious

mishap to three young ladies of this town late in the evening. They were driving when their buggy struck a horse that was being ridden by a gentleman. The carriage then became loose and broke and the ladies stood and sprang through two of the ladies out. The horse at the same time extricated himself from the buggy and one of the ladies was drawn

out by the reins being wrapped around each hand. She was dragged twenty feet, but fortunately the horse was seized and held, so that she was relieved and not injured. The same horse was immediately picked up by a colored man who seemed bent on driving him. He again became somewhat unmanageable and struck an old gentleman named James H. Perkins on the hip, throwing him down. He was painfully hurt, if not severely.

STILL ANOTHER ACCIDENT.

About the same time Mr. B. S. Francisco was thrown from his buggy and his head cut, but the Doctor seems to think nothing serious will attend it.

A LOVED PASTOR.

Rev. B. F. Bain, of Louisa circuit, whose four years' time expires to-day, leaves for the Conference of Lynchburg. He is admired and beloved by all, irrespective of denomination.

There will be a supper given at the Piedmont Hotel, at this place, on Friday night next, and from all that I have been able to gather it will be on the old Virginia style.

M.

GABE BURNS'S GREAT PERIL.

Shot and Clinging to a Bridge While a Train Passes Over Him.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

LOUISA C. H., November 11, 1890.

Yesterday being our regular monthly court, there was a very large attendance of the people.

There came very near being a serious

mishap to three young ladies of this town late in the evening. They were driving when their buggy struck a horse that was being ridden by a gentleman. The carriage then became loose and broke and the ladies stood and sprang through two of the ladies out. The horse at the same time extricated himself from the buggy and one of the ladies was drawn

out by the reins being wrapped around each hand. She was dragged twenty feet, but fortunately the horse was seized and held, so that she was relieved and not injured. The same horse was immediately picked up by a colored man who seemed bent on driving him. He again became somewhat unmanageable and struck an old gentleman named James H. Perkins on the hip, throwing him down. He was painfully hurt, if not severely.

STILL ANOTHER ACCIDENT.

About the same time Mr. B. S. Francisco was thrown from his buggy and his head cut, but the Doctor seems to think nothing serious will attend it.

A LOVED PASTOR.

Rev. B. F. Bain, of Louisa circuit, whose four years' time expires to-day, leaves for the Conference of Lynchburg. He is admired and beloved by all, irrespective of denomination.

There will be a supper given at the Piedmont Hotel, at this place, on Friday night next, and from all that I have been able to gather it will be on the old Virginia style.

M.

GABE BURNS'S GREAT PERIL.

Shot and Clinging to a Bridge While a Train Passes Over Him.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

LOUISA C. H., November 11, 1890.

Yesterday being our regular monthly court, there was a very large attendance of the people.

There came very near being a serious

mishap to three young ladies of this town late in the evening. They were driving when their buggy struck a horse that was being ridden by a gentleman. The carriage then became loose and broke and the ladies stood and sprang through two of the ladies out. The horse at the same time extricated himself from the buggy and one of the ladies was drawn

out by the reins being wrapped around each hand. She was dragged twenty feet, but fortunately the horse was seized and held, so that she was relieved and not injured. The same horse was immediately picked up by a colored man who seemed bent on driving him. He again became somewhat unmanageable and struck an old gentleman named James H. Perkins on the hip, throwing him down. He was painfully hurt, if not severely.

STILL ANOTHER ACCIDENT.

About the same time Mr. B. S. Francisco was thrown from his buggy and his head cut, but the Doctor seems to think nothing serious will attend it.

A LOVED PASTOR.

Rev. B. F. Bain, of Louisa circuit, whose four years' time expires to-day, leaves for the Conference of Lynchburg. He is admired and beloved by all, irrespective of denomination.

There will be a supper given at the Piedmont Hotel, at this place, on Friday night next, and from all that I have been able to gather it will be on the old Virginia style.

M.

GABE BURNS'S GREAT PERIL.

Shot and Clinging to a Bridge While a Train Passes Over Him.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

LOUISA C. H., November 11, 1890.

Yesterday being our regular monthly court, there was a very large attendance of the people.

There came very near being a serious

mishap to three young ladies of this town late in the evening. They were driving when their buggy struck a horse that was being ridden by a gentleman. The carriage then became loose and broke and the ladies stood and sprang through two of the ladies out. The horse at the same time extricated himself from the buggy and one of the ladies was drawn

out by the reins being wrapped around each hand. She was dragged twenty feet, but fortunately the horse was seized and held, so that she was relieved and not injured. The same horse was immediately picked up by a colored man who seemed bent on driving him. He again became somewhat unmanageable and struck an old gentleman named James H. Perkins on the hip, throwing him down. He was painfully hurt, if not severely.

STILL ANOTHER ACCIDENT.

About the same time Mr. B. S. Francisco was thrown from his buggy and his head cut, but the Doctor seems to think nothing serious will attend it.

A LOVED PASTOR.

Rev. B. F. Bain, of Louisa circuit, whose four years' time expires to-day, leaves for the Conference of Lynchburg. He is admired and beloved by all, irrespective of denomination.

There will be a supper given at the Piedmont Hotel, at this place, on Friday night next, and from all that I have been able to gather it will be on the old Virginia style.

M.

GABE BURNS'S GREAT PERIL.

Shot and Clinging to a Bridge While a Train Passes Over Him.

(Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.)

LOUISA C. H., November 11, 1890.

Yesterday being our regular monthly court, there was a very large attendance of the people.

There came very near being a serious

mishap to three young ladies of this town late in the evening. They were driving when their buggy struck a horse that was being ridden by a gentleman. The carriage then became loose and broke and the ladies stood and sprang through two of the ladies out. The horse at the same time extricated himself from the buggy and one of the ladies was drawn

out by the reins being wrapped around each hand. She was dragged twenty feet, but fortunately the horse was seized and held, so that she was relieved and not injured. The same horse was immediately picked up by a colored man who seemed bent on driving him. He again became somewhat unmanageable and struck an old gentleman named James H. Perkins on the hip, throwing him down. He was painfully hurt, if not severely.

STILL ANOTHER ACCIDENT.

About the same time Mr. B. S. Francisco was thrown from his buggy and his head cut, but the Doctor seems to think nothing serious will attend it.

A LOVED PASTOR.

Rev. B. F. Bain, of Louisa circuit, whose four years' time expires to-day, leaves for the Conference of Lynchburg. He is admired and beloved by all, irrespective of denomination.

There will be a supper given at the Piedmont Hotel, at this place, on Friday night next, and from all that I have been able